We Want You...to Join our Book Club

The Mountain Lakes League is starting a book club and we want you to join us. We will meet in November to discuss our first book Notes from the Cracked Ceiling by Anne E. Kornblut. Anne, a White House reporter for the Washington Post, looks at the role gender plays in politics today, focusing especially on Clinton and Palin in the presidential and vice-presidential campaigns of 2008. How far have women come in the search for equality in the nations positions of power? Join us as we discuss the role gender plays in political success today. For more information, please contact Jeana Macleod at jlwmacleod@gmail.com.
